

Name : DHULIPALLA. SIVASAI

Roll no : 20JRIA0456

Branch : E.C.E

Section : E.C.E-I

Assignment : 4

Subject : Communicative English

Last page written: 05

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through, but appears to be organized into several lines or paragraphs.

(3)

① Why Was Green Belt Movement Started? Was it Started With Ans the influence of Indian Chipko movement?

In 1977, Wangari Maathai launched the Green Belt movement to reforest her beloved country while helping the nation's Women. "Women needed income and they needed resources because theirs were being depleted," Maathai explained to People magazine. "So we decided to solve both problems together".

It was not started with the influence of India Chipko movement but both are same ideology.

---

2. What solutions did Mrs. Wangari Maathai show to her African Women for their problem?

Ans. She gave solutions by teaching poor African women to plant trees. She also carried the 2 cause to centre of her work one is Women's equality and Stewardship of the land in her native Kenya.

By training rural

Women to plant trees she hoped to give them rights controls over their lives.

③ Explain briefly about the challenges in the personal life of Wangari Maathai ④

As The challenges in the personal life of Wangari Maathai was the divorce had been costly, and with lawyers fees and the loss of her husband's income. Maathai found it difficult to provide herself and their children on her university wages.

An opportunity arose to work for the Economic Commission for Africa through the United Nations Development Programme.

④ Why did Steve Jobs drop out of Reed College?

By This was possibly due to their promise to his biological mother. During his time there, he met several famous intellectuals and personalities.

However, after one semester, he dropped out without telling his parents. (to spend money on). He explained that he did not want his parents to spend money on an education he thought was meaningless.

5

When did Steve Jobs go to Hare Krishna temple? and Why?

Ans Steve Jobs went to Hare Krishna temple for food when he was homeless and did not have money.

When he did not have room, So he slept on the floor in friends room. And he used to walk for 7 miles across town Every Sunday night to get one good meal a week at Hare Krishna temple. He loved it and these meals played an important role in his Journey.